

MEMORANDUM:

TO: Elementary Teachers of the Guilford County Schools System, Private Schools, Home Schoolers, Charter Schools and Other Public Schools Outside of Guilford County

FROM: Ruth Revels, Festival Co-ordinator

DATE: August 4, 2004

RE: Guilford Native American Indian Cultural Festival

Hope each of you has had a nice summer and that you are ready for an exciting and successful school year. As you are aware, the Guilford Native American Indian Cultural Festival is only a few weeks away, Friday, September 17, 2004.

This is a follow-up reminder to you to finalize your plans to bring your classes and enjoy this special event with us. We are planning the biggest and best Festival to date in Celebration of the 28th Annual Guilford Native American Association Pow Wow.

Special Information:

- Festival is Friday, September 17, 2004 from 9:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
- Location is the Greensboro Country Park, Greensboro, N. C.
- Admission is $3.00 per person. Grades K-5
- Food and drinks may be purchased at the Festival site if desired. If you do not wish to purchase your lunch, you will need to make individual arrangements for your students as necessary. Please be sure to take lunches off the buses since they will not be able to park inside the Festival Grounds. There will be a place designated for coolers and lunches. Lunches will need to be labeled per school.

Enclosed you will find the following items (5) each in addition to this cover memo. Please share them with the appropriate teachers in your schools.

1. Pow Wow Flyers;
2. Schedules for your information. Please make your plans according to the schedule to see one or all of the performances (On back of this Memo);
3. Registration Forms. It is imperative that you bring the Cultural Festival Form completed and ready to present with money upon arrival.

Thank you for your support of Guilford Native American Association and your desire to incorporate cultural diversity and awareness in the classroom. We look forward to seeing you at the Cultural Festival and we trust you are excited about this event. It is not necessary to call for reservations. However, please call us if there are further questions or concerns. Call 336-273-6605 or 273-8686.
